Coaching Highlights

Ashley Weber, FRESHMAN

"Mandy inspires me to be the best player I can. She is there for me as a friend when I need her, but not afraid to be a very serious coach."

Katie Brown, SOPHOMORE

"Mandy is amazing. She defends us to coach, participates with us in grueling conditioning, and supports us. She is our salvation."

Natalie Pilato, SENIOR

"One of my favorite memories was watching Coach Cos toss a couple of chairs across the gym floor after losing a match versus Belhaven."

Jill Adams, SENIOR

"At our trip to Sea World my sophomore year, the team was able to see Coach Cos saturated with water as he was selected to be Shamu's 'helper'."

Margaret Dykes, JUNIOR

"The coaching staff has a huge impact on the team. Our whackiness, fun-loving spirit and our stubbornness combines with the coaches to form a great group of girls that work together well."

Britney Mauldin and Crystal Helo set to block in the win over Belhaven.

Winning Team

Junior Margaret Dykes was named to the Verizon Academic All-District Volleyball Team, selected as an honorable mention player for the All-South Region Division III volleyball team, named to the All-SCAC first team, led the conference with 499 kills and received two Player of the Week honors.

Senior Jill Adams was named to the All-SCAC third team.

Coach Peter Cosmiano had his 100th win and became the school's all time winningest volleyball coach.

Final Ranking. The team ended its season with a fourth place overall conference standing.

Gameday Superstitions

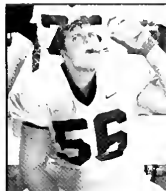

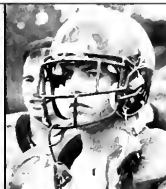

Jahreese Jones, DB

"I have to make sure I look good before every game."

Chris Schiro, RB

"I really don't have any rituals, but I do like to stay focused before the game. Brent LeJeune and I stretched each other and relaxed."

Matt McCollough, OL

"We usually watch College Gameday from 10:00 to 11:00 in the Kava House before every home game. I like to eat my pregame meal in a certain order."

Steven Campbell, LB

"I always get Belushi (Jason Fisher) to help me put my shoulder pads on."

6th	SCAC Tournament
-----	-----------------

Major Improvements. Women's Cross Country moved up to 6th place in the SCAC tournament, its highest finish in the past four years.

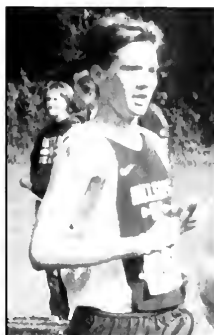

Setting Records. Jessica Brown and Mikaela Levy beat the fastest time from previous tournament teams. Corrinne Porr and Carley Dessauer moved up into the top five finishing times.

Jessica Brown had the highest team finish at all four meets including 3rd and 4th place finishes at the USM and MC meets, respectively.

Women's Golf. Elizabeth Powell, Emily Powers, Marisa Parker, and Corrine Porr competed in the SCAC Tournament.

Charlie Spence was named to the Men's Golf All-SCAC Second Team.

Is it a Sport?

Kim Parker, SENIOR

"It's a sport because you are part of a team and it involves everyone working together and we definitely incorporate athletic talents through stunts and jumps."

Anny Guthrie, FRESHMAN

"Cheerleading requires immense athletic ability and tremendous dedication which are two defining necessities that accompany any sport."

Sarah Cowan, FRESHMAN

"Cheerleading isn't a sport. It was invented for the sheer purpose of supporting athletes in other sports. Cheerleaders do have to be extremely athletic ... with the exception of me, of course."

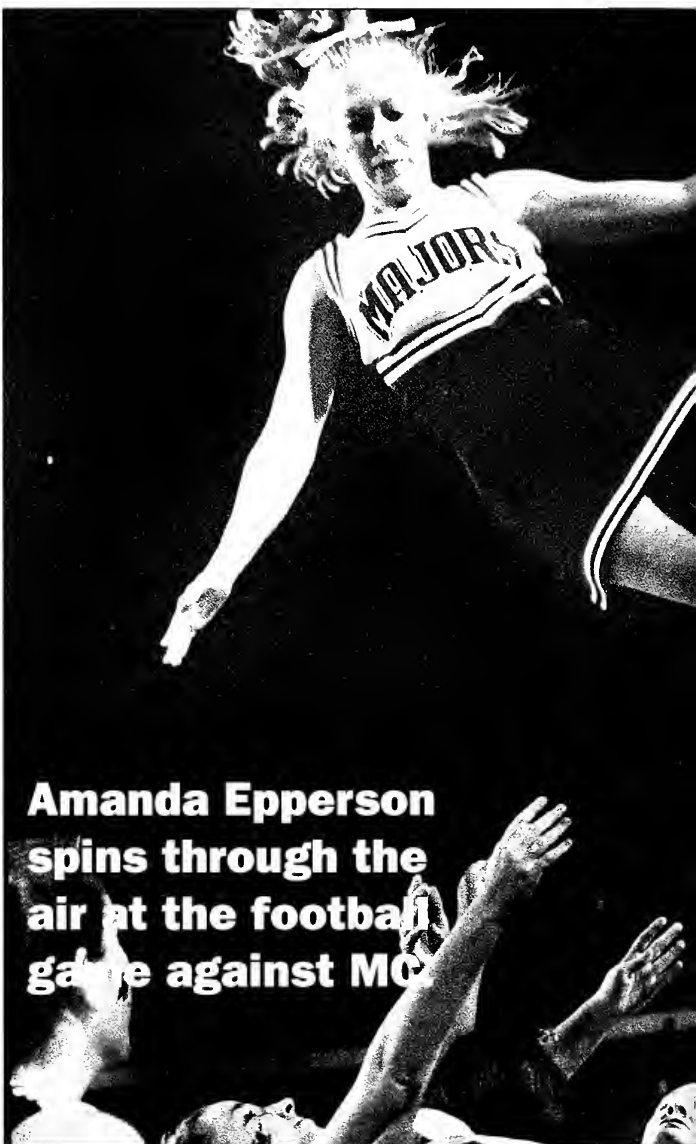

Dionne Jackson, SENIOR

"I think that cheerleading is a sport because we work hard so the fans don't have to."

Robin Rockco, JUNIOR

"Cheerleading is a sport because it requires a group of people coming together to accomplish one goal. It requires team work, practice, and dedication."

Camp. Squad returned from summer a week early to prepare for the season with a visiting UCA instructor.

Captain Dionne Jackson led the squad with her four years of experience.

Athletes. Anny Guthrie and Robin Rockco were 2-sport athletes, playing softball as well.

Pep Rally. The squad planned the Pep Rally prior to the MC game and showcased their talent.

Football squad. The seven member squad cheered at every home game and traveled to Memphis for the game against Rhodes.

Basketball Squad. A total of 12 members took center court for routines with the pep band and dance team.

Dancing Dozen. 12 members on the squad.

Leadership. Christi Langoni and Katherine Burch served as team captains.

Summer Practice. The team attended the Universal Dance Association camp in Hammond, LA, and returned to school one week early for training.

Weekly workout. Yoga with Dr. Carolee Larsen every Friday in the HAC and dance practice four days a week.

Social Outing. Beginning of the year dinner at Old Venice.

Service Project. The team helped new students move in to their dorms during Welcome Weekend.

Dance Music. A variety of tunes were used for dances including hip-hop, lyrical, pom, and band music. CDs came from UDA.

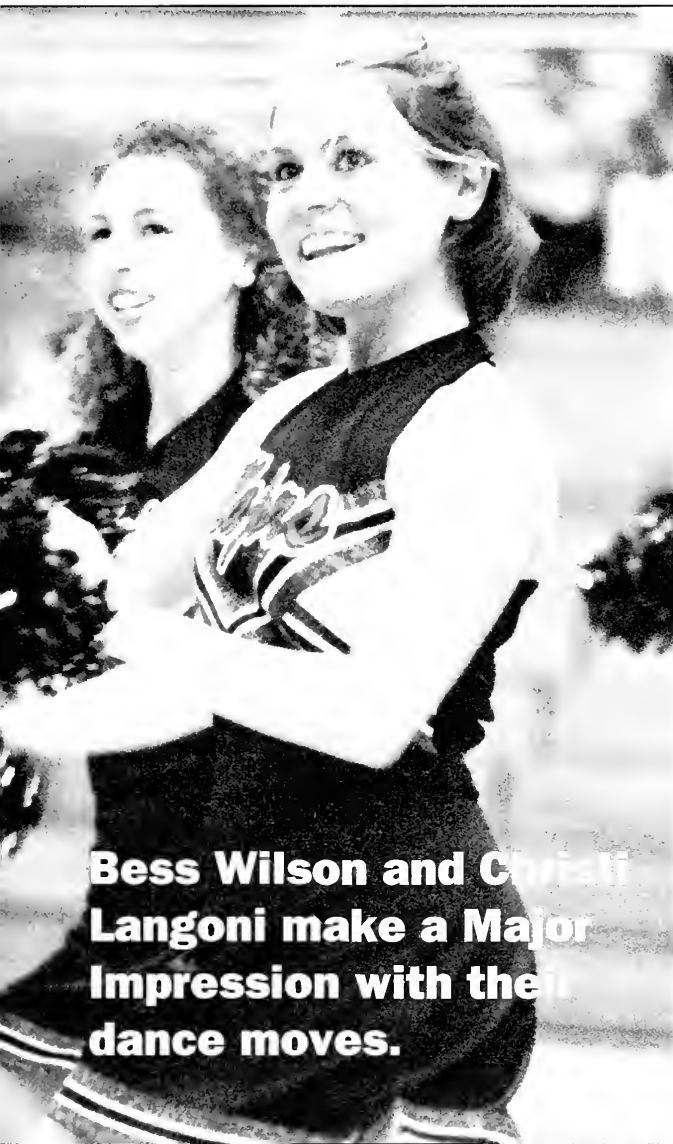

Entertaining the crowd at home football and basketball games.

Extra Performances. The team helped to pump up crowd spirit at pep rallies and the parade before the MC game.

Katherine Burch

Bess Wilson and Christi Langoni make a Major Impression with their dance moves.

Favorite Performance

Jessica Ordoyne

"I think my favorite song that we did was the Michael Jackson medley. The beat was really fast and upbeat, as was the dance, and it always got the crowd pumped."

Deidra Thompson

"My favorite song was 'Elevation' because as the song progressed in beat and tempo, it 'elevated' my spirit and dance performance, encouraging me to reach higher and burst with energy!"

Bess Wilson

"The pom routine was my favorite dance because it was fast, and the crowd responded well. We really do depend on the audience, and it helps when we can see that they are enjoying it."

Exciting Victories

Martha McDaniel

"It wasn't a victory but almost beating Trinity on Valentine's was great. They ended up winning the Division Three Championship. We were only down by six with a minute to play. That was really exciting."

Sheena Gardner

"Huntingdon college. It was our first road win in years."

Becky McDole

"I think our most exciting victory was at Huntingdon, because it was the first road game that we had won in a long time. We got to eat steak after the game!!"

Tennis Memories

Thomas Brezina

"We mooned people in Memphis, found Kentucky in Arkansas, but the thing I liked the most about tennis this year was my teammates."

David Yeh

"The past four years have been adventurous as well as challenging. Balancing school, work, social life, and tennis has been a rewarding experience."

Jenny Jasso

"The women's team started this thing about being princesses. The entire team had plastic crowns that we wore when we needed to feel royal. Both teams had lots of fun, which is all that matters."

THOUGHTS & MEMORIES...

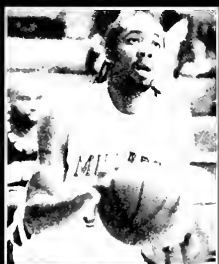

Randall Vaughan:

It was a real honor to win the conference title, and it goes to show where hard work and dedication can get you.

Barbara Balla:

I have learned through college sports and juggling classes and work that if you want something bad enough, you will find a way to accomplish it, no matter the personal sacrifice.

RaShaad Primm:

Our most exciting victory was when we beat Trinity University during senior weekend. Trinity was ranked 5th in the Southern region at that time and number one in conference. Everybody predicted us to lose but we shocked everyone.

ORDER OF OMEGA

number of members: 20

purpose: To bring together the most representative members of the greek community

what they did: Provided leadership to the Greek community and provided information about Greeks a member's view: "Order of Omega has given me the opportunity to be a leader not only in my sorority but also for the entire Greek community."

-Ashley Weitlauf

greek unity

"My sisters have allowed me to be in several leadership positions which have helped me to broaden my intellectual life and develop my character. Through Greek life, I have been able to make a difference on campus and in the community."

KIM PARKER, Greek Woman of the Year

"Greek life has given me the opportunity to help. Through involvement in the Greek system I have been able to help the campus, students, and those who need help in the community. Equally as important, Greek life has also helped me grow into the person I am today."

JEREMY LITTON, Greek Man of the Year

number of members: 8

purpose: To oversee all fraternities on campus; an executive board for all fraternities on campus

what they did: Talk about Greek issues, establish laws for Greek life a member's view: "I think of IFC as a place where different Greek members can come together as part of the larger Greek community."

-Laurence Mixson

PANHellenic

number of members: 8

purpose: To create consistent policies, encourage communication and unity among groups

what they did: Coordinated recruitment; co-coordinated Greek Week and alcohol education workshop; went to SEPC; sponsored NPC Delegate Bonnie Warren a member's view: "Being on Panhellenic gives me the opportunity to work with other women that I would not otherwise know. It teaches me how to find something special about every woman involved in Greek life."

-Katie Abel

GAMMA CHI

number of members: 11

purpose: To insure that potential new members had a positive recruitment experience

what they did: Guided potential new members through recruitment a member's view: "It was truly an experience to be on a different side of rush. I wasn't a freshman, but I wasn't a sorority member either. All I wanted was for all of the girls on my hall to be happy with what they got."

-Allyson Gregory

Graduation

Jessica Malpass:

Degree- B.A. Spanish

Plans after Graduation- Ole Miss Law School

Best Memory Of Millsaps- Living in Galloway the first year after it was renovated; my closest friends lived in the same cube.

David Yeh:

Degree- B.B.A. Business

Plans after Graduation- Hoping to start a coffee shop in North Jackson

Best Memory Of Millsaps- Bid Day and hanging out with friends

Aileen Abate:

Degree- B.S. Computer Science

Plans after Graduation- Getting a job close to home or maybe applying to nursing school next year

Best Memory Of Millsaps- Opening convocation my freshman year- I'll never forget the look of recognition on my classmates' faces while singing the Alma Mater when we realized it was the "Dirty Dancing" song.
